

Step 1: Supporting Documentation

In order for your application to proceed we will require any medical documents pertaining to the diagnosis listed on your application. These records are mandatory. Please look in your Personal medical files or contact your physician's office to obtain these records.

Your physician's office will require you to fill out a medical release as well as pay a small fee to obtain your records. It may take up to 14 days for the doctor to process your request so start as soon as possible. You do not have to disclose why you want a copy of your file it is your private business and is your right as a Canadian resident or citizen.

"Patients have a right of access to their personal health information that is in the custody or under the control of a HIC, including any information that has been stamped or indicated as confidential, unless an exception applies" Health Canada

You may also use one of our doctors release forms to have all documentation of your condition sent over to our doctors via fax. This form is located in the intake forms page of the karmacan.com website.

A supporting document can also be any one (or more) of the following:

- A diagnosis of you illness
- A Cat Scan, MRI or X-ray indicating your injury(s)
- A Referral from your Family Doctor Explaining your Illness(s)
- Consult notes from any doctor or specialist

We also encourage you to document the treatments attempted for your medical condition. This may include physio/chiropractic/naturopathic and prescriptions attempted. You can easily obtain records of past prescriptions from the pharmacy you purchased at. Just ask for a copy of your patient history.

Step 2)

- We will also need a copy of your valid health card/o.h.i.p card. If your health card/o.h.i.p card does not contain a photo, we will also need a copy of valid photo identification.
